Extensive Reading is an essential part of a good communicative English course. Within the Self-Access Learning Center there are many books, from a variety of levels and of a variety of genres. Some of these also have CDs so that you can listen to the audio as you read. These resources are part of the Extensive Reading program within the SILC.

この研究は将来どんなことに役立ちますか？

You will be able to choose from these texts when you take part in the Extensive Reading program in the SILC. Reading fluency can be of great help in all your future English studies.
